

MAIN HIGHLIGHTS OF THIS ROUTE:

Ferry Terminal & Britomart

If you are coming from further afield consider doing part of the journey by train or ferry.

Queen's Wharf Village

You'll often find The Cloud or Shed 10 bustling with activity throughout the summer. Enjoy giant boardgames in The Cloud or watch the harbour activity from the foot of Michael Parekowhai's artwork 'The Lighthouse.' The Queens Wharf Village hosts food stalls and an Auckland information kiosk.

Ports of Auckland

Behind the iconic red fence of Auckland you can see Ports of Auckland in action. It's a hive of activity, so take care crossing port entrances along the way.

Okahu Bay

Swim or relax in the shade of one of the pohutakawa trees. Across the road is a playground and lots of grass for picnicking.

Mission Bay

Beach, playground, restaurants, and an abundance of icecream. Spread out your picnic rug by the iconic Mission Bay fountain, sit back and enjoy.

10

St Heliers

Quintessential bays' life. Restaurants, beaches and seaviews.

CENTRAL AUCKLAND BIKE RIDE CITY TO BAYS

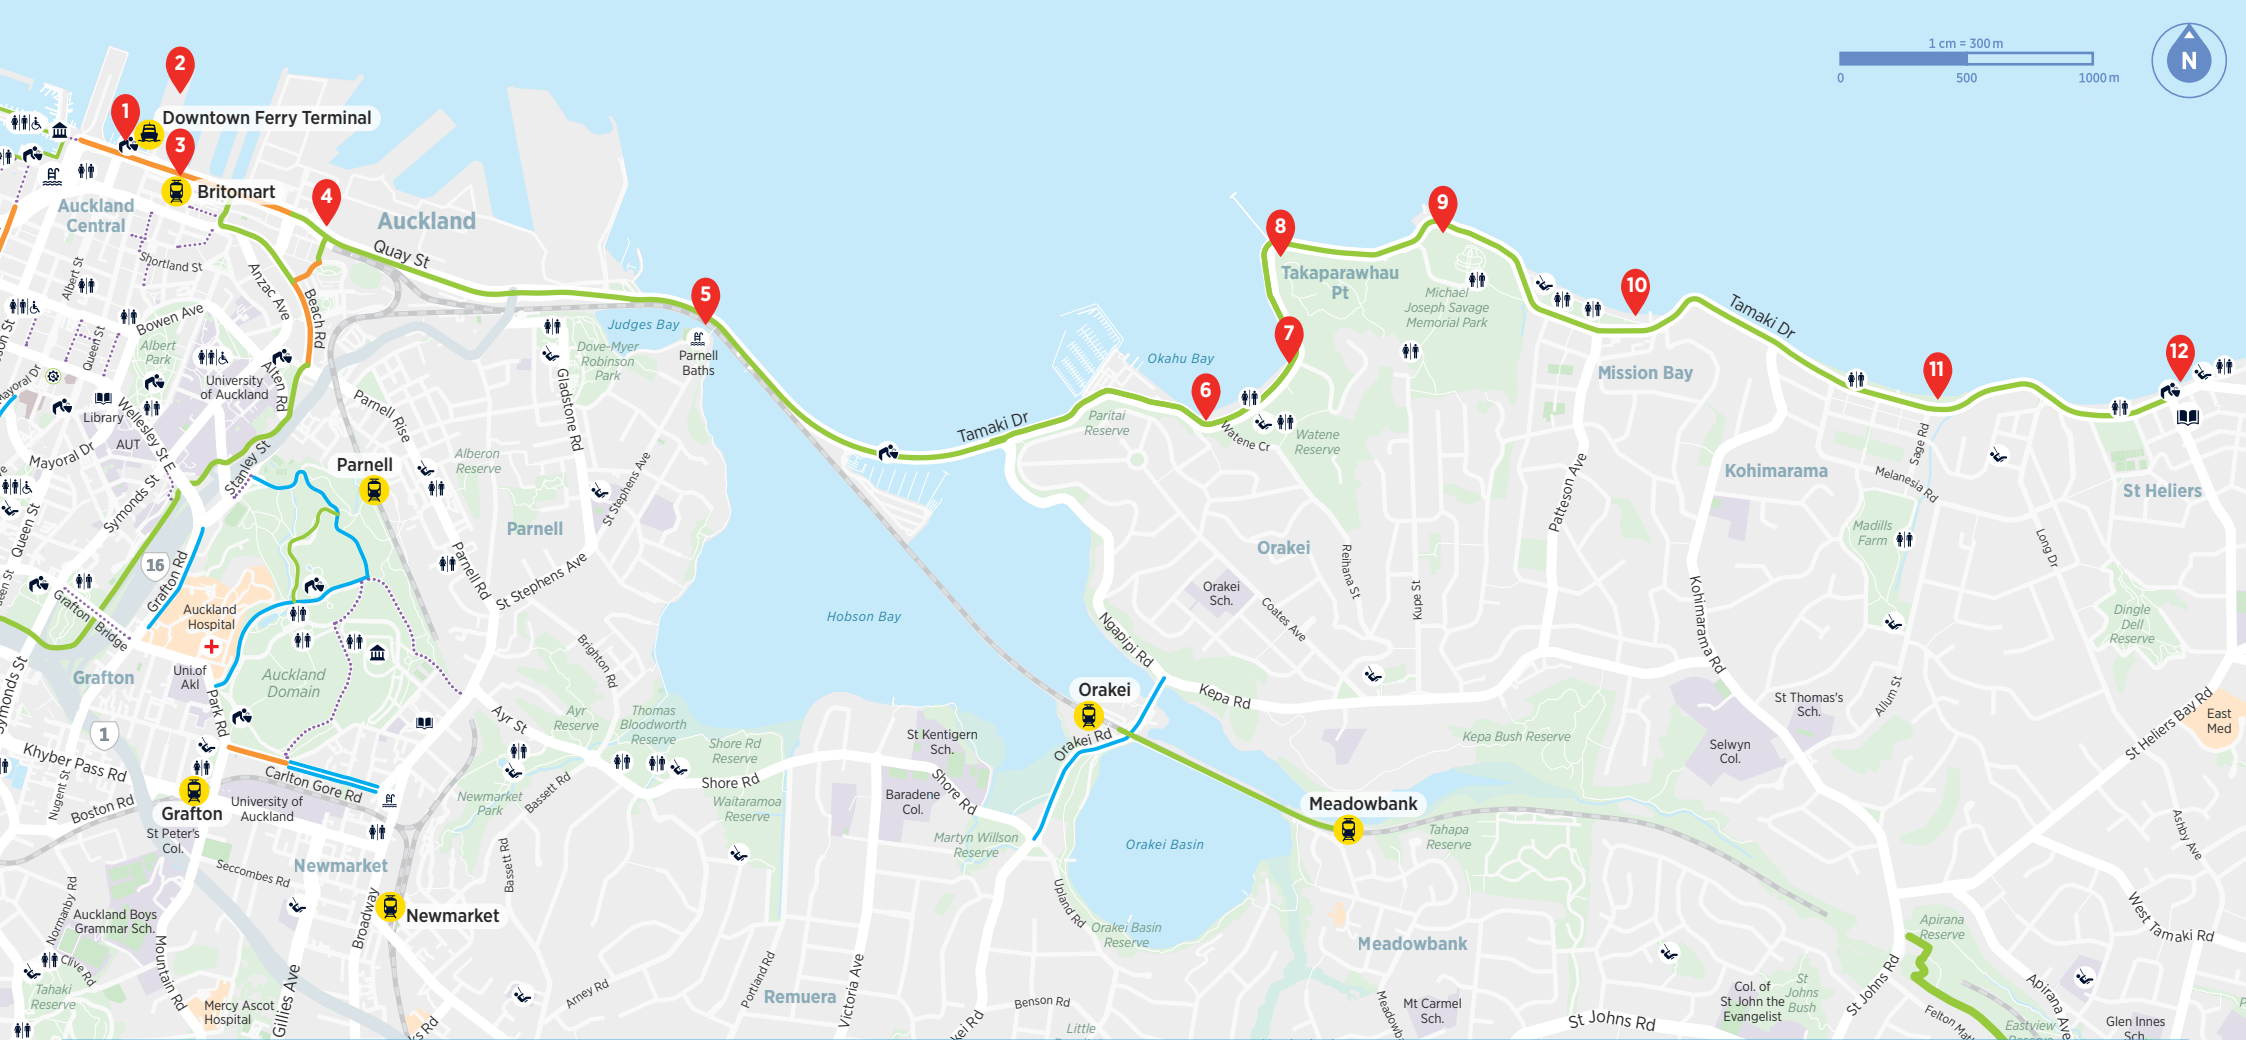

40 mins
↗ 10 km

Ride along Auckland's waterfront,
the city's most popular cycling route.

CITY TO BAYS

Ferry Terminal to Mission Bay 7km 30mins one way
 Ferry Terminal to St Heliers 10km 40mins

An iconic ride along Auckland's waterfront, Tamaki Drive is one of the city's most popular cycling routes, for commuters and ice-cream seekers alike. With great views out to Rangitoto, be sure to pack your beach towel for a stop at any of the spectacular white sand beaches. The route is especially busy in summer and weekends so remember to share the path with care.
